MAYOR STILL SITS; CHALMERS IS OUSTED; FIRE WAGES REDUCED

City Council Finally Gets a Little Work Done, But After Two Hours and Forty Minutes There is Still Left Untouched or Unfinished Enough for Another Special Meeting, Which Will Be Friday Night—McNamara Says No Good Purpose Would Be Served by His Resigning Now, But Declares Aldermen Frustrate Will of People.

An atmosphere of wonderment, curiosity and interrogation pervaded the corridors and offices of the city hall Wednesday afternoon, due to the happenings in the city council the night previous, when it became known that the mayor was preparing a statement for release to the press. The statement, which was read at the special meeting Wednesday afternoon and for publication in the daily news-

Every day the council met at 4 o'clock, every day in the council chamber was occupied, some by a curious crowd and others by persons who were serious. On certain matters, such as that of reduced salaries in the various departments, the council would come to a vote and forty minutes, exactly the same length of time taken up as at the meeting the day before, would be consumed. The day however, a little more business was attended to, but at there not great complaint of the department was until this meeting, and Alderman Smith said that he was not at all surprised to give a rather long spell of pessimism as to the possibilities of the present situation. He said that the conditions were such that the city might as well go bankrupt as to what the city might do if the war continued.

The motion that those of the first meeting and those of the other departments from which communications had been received and read, resolved that the reduction on the reduced scale, was put and carried.

Aldermen Still Antagonistic

Personal remarks, not altogether of the complimentary kind, were thrown across the room on several occasions, the remnants of the old feud between the two wards were opened and the rest of many a debate long since forgotten, made its appearance and was forced to the front.

Alderman Kinney, East and May wanted the wage scale put back on its old basis and he, Kinney, and Alderman Sheppard moved an amendment to the amendment that the former motion of the council be rescinded and that the wages be placed on the old basis. The question as to whether the amendment, and the motion was carried by the other aldermen.

"Smiles Like Tin Soldier."

"Aftermen Calder and Douglas are the only cause of the trouble which has been caused by the tin soldier," said "Mr. Calder smiles like a little tin soldier, but it is nothing to laugh at." $200,000 worth of debentures was read, and an offer will be made to the firm of $100,000. The mayor and Alderman Clarke are going to give the tin soldier a fair price in the present market.

Then came a discussion about the Letter of Mayor.

Edmonton, Sept. 23, 1914.
To the Municipal Council of the City of Edmonton.
SIR:—The White Counciling

secured in not obeying an unqualified mandate of the people is of opinion that neither the cause of commission government or the good of the city can be served by this council's 25 of these men were with the city.

The man in charge got the job done
and may have his salary reduced.
The suggestion to combine the departments would mean that the city would not meet with general approval.
The next item on the program was a heated personal debate between Aldermen May and the Mayor. It was between increased taxation and non-revenue producing street railways, and

1. The issue submitted in this matter to the electors is apt to be confounded with other irrelevant issues that would no doubt be

2. Since last night's action of council it is now impossible to secure a verdict from the people in time to submit the new charter to the new legislature.

Alderman Clarke thought that one commissioner was enough to carry on the city's business, with a secretary or assistant. He feared hard times ahead if the city did not look after itself.

There are now upon the agenda list 140 matters to be dealt with. I would point out to this council that the obstructive tactics on the part of some of the members of this council are holding up public business, and the majority of the council are the greatest improvement, and that a continuance of such a policy would be to the detriment of the city, and that the most severe condemnation of the citizens.

The mayor's address in its latest attitude, it will within a reasonable time pass the bylaw for the city, and the council will make the necessary arrangements for the plebiscite on the subject, and will be held on December 14.

Salaries of Firemen. When the debate was opened on the matter of the fire department's reduction in wages, Chief Lauder stated that there were 34 men in his department, the city ever had and the best it was possible to get. "The fact that he is being taken away by the men who were brought here to discredit him is his best testimonial," said the mayor.

A NEW FIELD THAT WILL COME INTO PROMINENCE

One of the probable effects of the war, so far as it directly affects Edmonton, and one which will be welcome, will be that greater attention will be paid to the mining resources of the country to the north and west of this city.

In times of peace mining, to those resident in a non-mining section such as Edmonton, is usually regarded in the light which Mark Twain gave words for when he said that "a mine is a hole in the ground and the owner is a liar," a mental attitude toward the industry which has been inculcated by the depredations of the wild-cutters who look to the non-mining section for their easy marks when floating fake propositions. As a consequence of this attitude, the mining interests are usually looked upon with considerable skepticism or, for the sake of greater safety, totally ignored by many of an adventurous turn to whom they would make strong appeal were they but better acquainted with the industry.

But in times of war mining appears in a new light. It is a basic industry. Gold mining, most especially, is recognized as an industry which the war does not affect except beneficially. In all the world the gold camps will probably feel the effect of the war least of all, for the reason that their product, next to food, is the one which the world wants most. As a consequence more attention will be turned to the mining industry and there will be a more general recognition of the fact that mining, rather than a hazardous business, is, when conducted upon a business-like and honest basis, one of the safest and most certainly profitable businesses in the world.

Brought tributary to the city of Edmonton by the construction of the new railways now just completed in the mountains is a territory which fifty years ago had world-wide renown for its gold-producing richness. The Cariboo, Cassiar and Omicamea countries have turned millions and hundreds of millions of dollars into the treasuries of the world, and this from the crudest methods of mining. There are millions there still, in gravel that is not sufficiently rich for the gum boot miner of the wilderness, but promising a veritable bonanza for the hydraulic and the dredge which closer transportation make possible.

With stocks having become unpopular, real estate dormant and the usual lines of financial venture in times of peace suddenly brought to a standstill, attention must certainly be turned to mining, and this new field tributary to Edmonton has many points of attractiveness which will undoubtedly bring it into prominence.

THE WAR FINISHES WHEN THE MILITARY AUTOCRACY IS SUPPRESSED.

When the time comes for the re-establishment of peace in Europe, which is still in the distant future, it will be remembered against Germany that to make a treaty with the German bureaucracy would be a waste of time and ink.

Germany, previous to the outbreak of this war, had treaties with other nations. The covenant guaranteeing the neutrality of Belgium became an international agreement in 1837, a written treaty in 1870 and a scrap of paper in 1914. The Berlin agreement, which guaranteed the autonomy of Bosnia and Herzegovina, bore the signature of Germany and the Triple Alliance was a distinctively Germanic production.

But when these treaties came to the test Germany ratified the neutrality of Belgium in '70 for the purpose of satisfying Britain and Isolating France, only to violate it now in the hope of securing an advantage over France. When, to promote Teutonic domination in Southern Europe, Austria ignored the Berlin agreement by grabbing the autonomous states, Germany not only allowed Austria in its violation of the agreement which Germany was in honor bound to guarantee, but held the other nations off while the violation was perpetrated. Now, having set out upon a war of aggression, Germany, the nation which invited Italy in on the pretense that it was a defensive alliance, threatens Italy with vengeance if she fails to join with the Teutons in their war of aggression.

The German empire, as at present constituted, is of the same age only as the Dominion of Canada, but in her few years of national existence it has been very clearly proven that the Prussian readiness to violate any agreement constitutes the sum of the morals which govern Germany. Prussian morals consist of the barbaric belief that might is right. This has been the doctrine of the militarist in all the ages, and it is the militarist caste which has dominated Germany. Asquith put it clearly when he declared that the issue in this war is whether the world is to be governed by citizens or soldiers. So long as the soldier government of Germany continues there can be no peace, and a treaty with Germany's military autocracy would be no guarantee of peace whatever. The war finishes when the military autocracy of Germany has been suppressed and its authors hanged or banished from the world's affairs.

LOCAL RELIEF ENTITLED TO SPECIAL CONSIDERATION

In the campaign for the collection of patriotic and relief funds, which commences in Edmonton and vicinity today, it will be well for contributors to keep in mind the fact that contributions are being taken under two heads, one for the patriotic fund and the other for the local relief fund. Contributions to the patriotic fund will go into the national reservoir for such funds and be administered from Ottawa for the maintenance of the families of soldiers who are at the front. Contributions to the relief fund will be administered locally for the relief of the families of soldiers and civilian alike who may have been placed in a position of want or jeopardy by the war.

Both are worthy objects, but, arrangements upon a very large scale having already guaranteed the organized looking-after of soldiers' families, as a consequence of which their welfare is reasonably secure, the fund for local relief calls for special consideration. As a consequence of the great unemployment during the last few weeks, there are quite certain to be many families requiring help, other than those of volunteers, this coming winter, and as the patriotic fund is not applicable to their cases the local relief fund is the one out of which whatever help is afforded must be taken.

ADVISES EXHIBIT OF PRODUCTS AT SAN DIEGO FAIR

Coast Journalist Says Many People from Southwest Interested in Alberta.

WILL MAKE CIRCUITOUS TRIP IN NORTH COUNTRY

Party Outfits for Six-Weeks Jaunt up Athabasca and Back by the Peace.

That this city will lose one of the greatest advertising opportunities, and one that will possibly not again present itself in the history of modern times, if it does not see to it that an Edmonton or an Alberta agricultural exhibit is placed at the year-long exposition to be held at San Diego, California, during 1915, is the opinion of William Floyd Coleman of Seattle, Canadian business manager for the Sunnet magazine, now in the city on his way to the Peace River and far north country, with a party of American men, for the purpose of securing information and data for his magazine and of securing some reliable records of the north.

This is not Mr. Coleman's first visit to Edmonton, he having been here last year in the interests of the Sunnet magazine, and since that time a number of fine stories and illustrations of Edmonton and its environs have appeared in that well-known Pacific monthly.

Industrial Advertising "Pulse" Mr. Coleman stated that on his trip through the country, and especially in the states, he had noticed the advertising campaign which was being carried on by the Edmonton industrial department in various publications, relating to the possibilities and attractiveness of this country, and drawing special attention to the Edmonton exhibit which it was purposed to have at the San Diego exposition.

Since the war, however, it has been suggested by city officials that the required expenditure of $5,000 or $6,000 for the exhibit at San Diego could not be granted during these depressive war times and the likelihood of the exhibit being placed seems very impossible. This, Mr. Coleman thinks, would be a very bad mistake for the city to make in view of the fact that at the lowest estimation, one million people will see the exhibit at San Diego, and the great amount of advertising and results to be derived from the exhibit is not to be estimated in dollars and cents, but rather in the numbers of settlers who are bound to be attracted to Alberta and the Edmonton district by the display and information.

Favors San Diego Exposition "There are scores of visit-to-do farmers to the south that are just waiting to be introduced to such an opportunity as the Edmonton district presents," said Mr. Coleman, "and I am sure that as a result of the year's publicity at the San Diego exposition at least 1,000 settlers of the better class would be attracted here."

Mr. Coleman favored the San Diego fair as a place for an Alberta exhibit rather than San Francisco, as the immense proportion of the "Frisco fair" will take away from the exhibit, and the unique sort were being emphasized and featured.

Mr. Coleman's party to the north will be well equipped. The party will comprise, besides Mr. Coleman, A. Viator, J. H. Morris, J. Rogers and A. Aylesworth, of the latter two the latter two being moving picture men, and Gardner Richardson, representing the "Family Magazine" of New York. They are having lunch in Edmonton a thirty-foot launch, which will be named the "Alberta." This boat is almost completed, and will be given her trial trip in the Saskatchewan river today by the builders.

It is hoped to secure some rare pictures of life in the north country, as well as several reels of motion pictures. Five canoes will accompany the launch to Athabasca, from where the journey by water will commence, and for 1,400 miles this mode of travel will be used.

Route of Trip Like Circle The water trip will take the form of a huge circle. From Athabasca, the route will be up the river to Lake Athabasca, then west and south to Peace River, covering a wide expanse of country, and then directly north and east to Lesser Slave Lake, and down Lesser Slave river to Athabasca, the starting point. The entire water trip is expected to take about six weeks, as the party will travel inland at many points in search of big game. The feature of Mr. Coleman's article to be written for the Sunnet magazine after the trip has been made, will be to turn the spotlight on the Peace River country with its vast wealth of golden opportunities.

WOMAN'S BEST MEDICINE

Mrs. Kelly Advises all Women to Take "Fruit-a-Tives"

HAGHERVILLE, ONT., Aug. 26th, 1913. "I can highly recommend 'Fruit-a-Tives' because they did me an awful lot of good and I cannot speak too highly about them. About four years ago, I commenced taking 'Fruit-a-Tives' for a general break-down and they did me a world of good. We bought a good many dollars' worth, but it was money well spent because they did all that you claim for them. Their action is so pleasant, compared with other laxatives, that I found only pleasure, as well as health, in taking them. They seemed to me to be particularly suited to women, on account of their mild and gentle action, and I trust that some other women may start taking 'Fruit-a-Tives' after reading my letter, and if they do, I am satisfied the results will be the same as in my own case."

EDMONTON VOLUNTEER CORPS IS DESIRABLE

To the Editor of The Capital:

With reference to the letter which appeared in the issue of the 21st, instant, signed by H. M., in which he quotes from an English paper in an endeavor to show that the "Home Guard" is a movement contrary to the wishes of the authorities, I would be glad if you would publish the letter below, received from Colonel Crum, the officer commanding this military district. The letter is addressed to one of the committee who has been most active and untiring in organizing the Edmonton volunteer corps. "Sir,—With reference to your letter of the 1st instant, on the subject marginally noted, I have the honor to inform you that I leave little to be desired in the thanks of the department to you for your suggestions, and to state that the same will receive due consideration when the troops now mobilized at Valcartier camp have been embarked."

H. M. is in error in two important particulars.

Firstly: The Edmonton Volunteer Corps is a body of civilians who are anxious to learn military drill, so as to be prepared should their services be required. They are neither a military organization nor a police force.

Secondly: So far as being a hindrance to the military authorities, the movement, as shown by the above letter, is one for which those who are engaged in the same have the highest regard in the militia department of Canada.

Thanking you for your space,

Yours truly,
 A. C. GRANT.

SASKATCHEWAN'S INCOME SHOWS INCREASE—HAS SURPLUS OF $552,066

Regina, Sept. 24.—Saskatchewan's bonded indebtedness is twenty million dollars, according to figures submitted to the house yesterday by the Hon. George Bell, provincial treasurer, in the course of his budget speech. In addition to the regular estimates, supplementary estimates are being brought down to provide a sum of $750,000 to be devoted to patriotic purposes. Out of this fund will come the money to purchase the 1,500 remounts which the province is donating to the imperial government.

Dealing with the income and expenditures for the year ending April 30, 1914, Mr. Bell expressed the satisfaction of the government at the condition of revenue finances, the total income during the year amounted to $6,248,956, to which must be added $106,865 cash balance carried forward from the previous year, making a grand total in receipts of $6,355,821. The total expenditure over the same period was $5,803,756, leaving a cash surplus of $552,066. Mr. Bell said that the income of the majority of the departments had shown an increase when compared with the figures for the previous year and still larger receipts were being shown since the end of the fiscal year, quoting figures to substantiate his statements.

Count Tolstoi's Prophetic Words a Few Hours Before His Death

A PROPHECY

"This is a revelation of events of a universal character, which must shortly come to pass. Their spiritual outlines are now before my eyes. I see floating upon the surface of the sea of human fate the huge silhouette of a nude woman. She is—with her beauty, her poise, her smile, her jewels—a super-Venus. Nations rush madly after her, each of them eager to attract her especially. But she, like an eternal courtesan, flirts with all. In her hair ornaments of diamonds and rubies is engraved her name, 'Commercialism.' As alluring and as bewitching as she seems, much destruction and agony follow in her wake."

"And behold, she has three gigantic arms with three torches of universal corruption in her hand. The first torch represents the flame of war, the second torch bears the flame of bigotry and hypocrisy, and the third torch is that of the law."

"The great conflagration will start about 1912, set by torch of the first arm in the countries of Southeastern Europe. It will develop into a destructive calamity in 1913. In that year I see all Europe in flames and bleeding. I hear the lamentations of huge battlefields. But about the year 1915 a strange figure from the North—a new Napoleon—enters the stage of the bloody drama. He is a man of little military training, a writer or journalist, but in his grip most of Europe will remain till 1925."

"The end of the great calamity will mark a new political era for the old world. There will be left no empires or kingdoms, but the world will form a federation of the United States of Nations. There will remain only four great giants—the Anglo-Saxons, the Latins, the Slavs and the Mongolians."

OUR WAR ATLAS.

This is the most complete and attractive atlas in print. The size is 12 by 16 inches. The cover is in full colors and very attractive, showing the flags of nations at war and a beautiful small round map of the world in colors. Inside are large clear, beautifully colored, 50 by 20 inch maps of Europe and the World and smaller half page maps of Britain, Russia, Germany, Austria, Balkan States and France. These maps are in full colors. There are eight pages of splendid halftones and text. The pictures are all taken from a private collection of photographs which show the very latest pictures of the armies, navies, airships and leaders of all the nations at war. This collection of pictures is a wonderful addition to the atlas and is exclusively our own.

DR. YOUNG WINS
BILLIARDS FROM
CHARLES IRGENS

Billy Ryle Will Play Match with Dick Gardner Friday Evening.

Mainly by getting a good start and amassing a count which his opponent could not overcome, Dr. Young defeated Charles Irgens at the Empire hall in the three cushion billiard tournament last night by the score of 36 to 21. Both players made high runs of three and on seven different occasions Dr. Young made runs of two.

On Friday evening there will be a matched game at the Empire billiard hall between Billy Ryle, the local billiard expert and Dick Gardner, who is on this week's bill at Fantages. The match will be three cushion caroms 50 points up. Gardner is a player well known in Chicago and it is expected that he will give Ryle a hard fight.

JACK JOHNSON IS OUT ON BAIL NOW

Big Fighter in Trouble Again for Using Obscene Language in London.

London, Sept. 24.—Jack Johnson, who now claims American citizenship, is in trouble again. As usual his automobile is primarily the cause. Because he used language which a London policeman describes as obscene, Johnson was brought before a magistrate in Bow street today and held on his own recognizance pending a further hearing.

Alleged Galician Murder.
Winnipeg, Sept. 24.—A report that a Galician had murdered one fellow countryman and wounded another at Ottumwa, about thirty miles east of here, on the Emerson branch of the C.P.R., was received here this morning, but no details of any kind were available. The provincial police are investigating.

Hero of Aerial Raid.
London, Sept. 21.—C. H. Collett, the hero of the aerial raid into Germany, is a lieutenant of the Royal Marine artillery. He took to flying a year ago and proved himself a remarkably fine pilot.

FOUR PLAYERS, THOUGHT DOWN AND OUT, WHO HAVE COME BACK THIS SEASON.

ESKIMOS ARE NOT
DISPLAYING MUCH
RUGBY INTEREST

Having Rather Slim Practices
—Civics Showing Much Enthusiasm for Game.

For some reason unknown there seems to be little enthusiasm in the Eskimo rugby team and it is impossible to get sufficient players out to hold a decent practice. At the last few workouts only about ten were on hand and unless there is a reformation any chance of the Eskimos winning the league championship is pretty slim. Some of the enthusiasts have been turning out religiously every night but they are beginning to get somewhat discouraged. In fact, Deacon White considers it a waste of time to coach unless the attendance picks up. The Civics seem to have the right spirit in practice. They go about it as if they intend to accomplish something and it looks as though they will give the other teams a hard run. They are handicapped by their practice ground but take the bumps philosophically.

Jimmy Hill punts the ball in fine shape and Whitelaw is making good at quarter. Blades is handling himself nicely, having played the American game before although this is his first attempt at the Canadian article. The Civics will hold another practice today at 5 o'clock on the old high school ground.

BY LOSING DOUBLE-HEADER GIANTS
ARE PRACTICALLY OUT OF RUNNING

New York is Now Six Games Behind in Pennant Race—
Boston Has Even Break With Cincinnati—Claims
Lavender of Chicago Used Emery Paper.

Boston, Sept. 24.—An even break was the result of yesterday's double-header, Boston winning the first game 5 to 2, while Cincinnati took the second 3 to 0. The local team now has a lead over New York in the pennant race of six games. A liner by Smith that was blocked by a boy as it was building into the center field bleachers gave Boston the winning tally in the final inning of the opening contest, the rap going for a home run. The second game was a pitchers' battle. Lear, formerly of Princeton, having the better of the argument with Davis. Lost Beth.

New York, Sept. 24.—New York was practically eliminated yesterday from the pennant race, losing a double-header to St. Louis by scores of 2 to 1 and 9 to 0. It was the first time New York lost two games in one day this season. St. Louis climbed to third place in the league standing. In the first game Tetreau held St. Louis to three hits, but his wildness beat him. Marquand pitched the second game for New York and suffered his twelfth straight defeat. Used Emery Powder.

Philadelphia, Sept. 24.—Home runs sent in seven of Philadelphia's tallies in the game in which the home team defeated Chicago yesterday 9 to 4. All the circuit drives were made off Lavender. Cravath's two homers sent in five runs and Becker's four base drive scored a runner besides himself. Lavender pitched well until the third inning, when Manager Downham claimed the pitcher had rubbed the ball on emery paper and passed the paper to Zimmerman. Umpire Rizer examined the ball in play and then kept it. Rizer will send the ball to President Tener of the National league as evidence.

Mack Wants Johnson.
Connie Mack is making an effort to have Walter Johnson join his team this winter, when a tour of the west to the Pacific coast is contemplated by a nine which Mack will select from the American league and another which Frank Boncroft, of the Cincinnati club, will pick from the National. Mack wants Johnson as his star pitcher, because he realizes that he is a great attraction. Walter has taken the proposition under advisement, but it is more than likely that he will turn it down, as he is anxious to see the entire winter on his farm, resting.

Races Postponed.
Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 24.—Because of a chilling rain which fell throughout the forenoon, yesterday's grand circuit races were postponed until today. See Page 4 for European War Atlas, free to Capital readers.
